BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that he wishes to settle in Madras & requests that his pension may be kindly ordered to be paid to him in Madras at the privileged rate of $\text{Rs. } 1 \frac{2}{3}$ the mensem.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

P.

Mr. C. Bress is now getting his pension in England at the privileged rate of suchance, viz: $\text{Rs. } 1 \frac{2}{3}$, allowed to the British uncommissioned officers in British India, under G.O. No. 145823 of the 27.2.93.

From the notes recorded in S+A. 21-06 it will be seen that the payment of pensions at $\text{£} 1.9^2$ involves much loss to Govt. & that it is finally decided not to give the pensions in England beyond the market rate to those taking service after 21st Nov 1905. The privileged rate was sanctioned to these European officers for two reasons: - (1) that the Secy. of State guaranteed the payment of pensions to all uncommenced officers in British India at $\text{£} 1.9^2$ the rate in England; (2) that the Govt. of Mysore had the facilities to make their payments in England through their bankers Messrs Barth & Co, London. It is doubtful whether British Indian officers settling anywhere else, besides England, are entitled to the privileged rate of exchange & even if they are, the Govt. of Mysore have certainly no means of making may be granted. He is already drawing his pension at the Concessional rate of 15h 9d the rupee and the transfer of the payment to Natal will not involve any extra charge if Messrs. Coutts & Co. can arrange for the disbursement of the pension in that country without any charge.
